Ready2Roll Cycling Training Series Postponed by Coronavirus

Ladies and gentlemen, in the best interest of the health and safety of you, your family and friends, we regret to inform you that Ready2Roll Cycling has decided to postpone the balance of our training rides. Believe us, we do not take this decision lightly.

At Ready2Roll Cycling, we are extremely aware and concerned about the rapid spread of the Coronavirus. Locally, we have seen unprecedented health and safety steps including, the cancellation of the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo as well as the Tour De Houston event and many other local events and rides to help counter the spread of the virus.

As you know, our weekly training rides encompass anywhere from 700 – 900 riders and volunteers. While we do believe our cycling population is among the healthiest in the community, we simply cannot proceed with the training series given the current environment.

The ride scheduled for this Saturday; March 14 in Fayetteville will be put on hold as well as ALL upcoming rides. We will continue to stay informed about the ongoing status of the Coronavirus in our community, and not proceed with the training series until local health officials indicate it is safe to resume group activities.

If we are unable to resume the training series, we will begin issuing pro-rata refunds for rides cancelled less any fixed costs incurred. Please be patient with us as it will take a bit of time to work through this process.

For those volunteers who have Ready2Roll Cycling supplies (water coolers, etc.) in their possession, please continue to hold onto the items until we know the outcome of the training series. If we are not able to continue with the series, we will inform you of the process to provide the materials back to us. Thank you in advance for your patience.

While this decision was not taken lightly and is extremely disappointing to us, we believe we have an obligation to do the right thing and avoid our group gatherings for the health and safety of each of you, your families and friends.

Thank you for your understanding.

Stay safe and we'll stay in touch!

Steve, Marshall, Jan & Robbie
